to obtain it. The man who was born tired will never be unhappy the greater he is.

The man who talks for others exhibits personal neglect.

The means of obtaining the truth is common property. Before trying to make others honest be honest yourself. Everybody could succeed at minding their own business. A rare man is he who is uncooked by the power of conceit.

to be deficient in sense.

Compulsory society destroys the object for which society exists. There would be none to reform if the reformers were all reformed. The most lonesome man is he who is seeking for some one to lean upon.

another will be an original failure.

A question seems to be settled man says so. "Book knowledge" is the imitation, experience.

confidence in others. man, but he who has neither can be independent and serve himself.

the strict sensing of it, therefore information is always doubtful.

The real sense of knowledge is to learn something, instead of imitating the knowledge of others.

Aristocratic people are those who other man. will not associate with the people they are dependent on for support.

The real is always imitated, for that reason a man may even look and sound as if he was really cultured.

The reason there are so many followers in the world is because they have been trained to be obedient. The reason some people never prosper is because they are waiting to be told what they are best fitted There is virtue in ignorance if one must first possess knowledge before they can be dishonest successfully. If all people sat in judgment autumn and winter a vast army of against their neighbor, such unselfish | fuel-gatherers spread over the land. conduct would destroy the human Boys ascend trees and beat them with lies will be impossible, and lawyers which way the wind blows before will have to look around for some they are annexed by some enterprisother business.

Life is motion, motion is the result | manure collectors swarm over all the of force, force is heat, and heat is roads of the country. Chinese wosunshine; thus with material the men carry this minute economy into philosophy of life is complete in this splinter.

The Conflict Between Good and Evil.

injustice that is perpetrated upon the | ments is at last about to commence. common people by those who elect | Chinese wheelbarrows squeak for the themselves to exclusive privileges, by want of a few drops of oil; but to reason of the knowledge of how to people who have no nerves the squeak foolery about ballot reform.

stroy the affected quality of a class make in an hour a cooking range, of there was little conversation. He grain dose of quinine will usually of people who are determined to rule strong and perfect draught, out of a spoke especially of Mr. Fields, very break up a cold in the beginning. while they possess the power, regard- pile of mud bricks, lasting indefinite- lovingly, for sending him a portion of Anything that will set the blood acless of right or wrong. A free gov- ly, operating perfectly and costing the profits on the reprint of his books tively in circulation will do it, whethernment signifies a numerical majori- nothing. The old woman who in her by the house of Ticknor & Fields, at er it be drugs or a buck-saw. But ty of the whole people; it does not last moments hobbled as near as pos- a time when he sorely needed money. better than all, if your cold is invetadmit, in principle, of a superior class. sible to the family graveyard in order He soon settled down into a dreamy, erate or serious, consult-your family Hence for a class to assume the right to die so as to avoid the expense of half-waking doze, when conversation physician, and at once. to adopt a form of politics that prac- coffin bearers was Chinese .- North with the bright, agreeable young latically controls the system of govern- China Herald. dies, about the Lake Poets, was gladment, is to leave the common people unprotected. They being ignorant of it, will not excuse the wrong in men, who, if educated, cannot be ignorant of the injustice. This evil will surely be exposed or history is worry and increase our open air exeronly noted for its lies. The people cise, a large portion of nervous diswill take what belongs to them as eases would be abolished. For those soon as a simple knowledge of their who can not get a sufficient holiday, wrongs becomes general. The exclusive class will be called to account | Many whose nerves are constantly for the method by which they could strained in their daily vocation have deceive a great nation and rule it as discovered this for themselves. A absolutely as if it had been styled a Spanish merchant in Barcelona told monarchy. To proclaim a right makes his medical man that he always went it no more a fact than the humbug to bed for two or three days whenever that a majority of the people of the he could be spared from his business, United States are the government, and he laughed at those who spent The recognized privilege of going their holidays on toilsome mountains. through the form of voting is in the One of the hardest worked women in right direction, but this advance in England, who has for many years civilization was not conferred upon conducted a large wholesale business, the common people by any exclusive retains excellent nerve at an advancclass, it was fought for by people ed age, owing, it is believed, to her who may be styled ignorant and illit- habit of taking one day in a week in erate, but they possessed the inspira- bed. If we can not avoid frequent tion of liberty in common with all agitations, we ought, if possible, to living creatures. Such is the spirit give the nervous system time to reof progress, however oppressive the cover itself between the shocks. Even result may be.

All history shows plainly that op- will deprive a hurried, anxious day pression, injustice, and wickedness of of much of its injury. The nerves every character is confined to the can often be overcome by a strateclass of people in possession of ad- gem when they refuse to be controlled wanced knowledge. The reason is by strength of will. obvious, for no one can do evil without first possessing knowledge how to do it. It is the unrestrained liberty to obtain knowledge that civilizes the people of the earth, for man grasps knowledge as greedily as he does money, the value of which is often equivalent to the power of knowl-

Reason and a consciousness of duty is what suggests to the mind of man what is right. Hence if a man The less a man feels his greatness | withholds his honest convictions to satisfy his greed and love of power, the more knowledge he possesses, the more unjust he can be toward his

Good and evil are in constant strife, and so nearly balanced that the activity of life is possible. It is no secret that a perfect balance is inaction, and also a predominant element will effect the same result. Good always prevails over evil by the protecting It is better to be too sensitive than favor of Nature, and evil is only possible by the desire in man to obtain knowledge, hence the progress and civilization of mankind is not due to any desire of man to treat his fellow-

Men grind each other from a natural desire to elevate and get glory The man who succeeds in imitating for themselves, but a thief would not be justified in stealing the spectacles A man needs to be well educated from a blind man, and, therefore, the before he can be dishonest successful- only good the individual man can do another is to act his honest convic-The wheels of justice grind slow, tions in accord with the golden rule, but never stop their ceaseless revo- thus becoming a possible example to of fellowship and sympathy exists. encourage others.

in some people's minds, if a popular | fought for their rights unaided. The | man is sure to have a quick sympathy right to vote is but a compromise with their aristocratic rulers; it will some for the real can only be obtained by day expose the insincerity of the rich man's sympathy for the poor man, Success in life is as much due to whom he is dependent upon for his self confidence as failure is to the wealth. On the other hand Nature is the only friend of the poor man, Popularity or money will serve a for those educated are striving to protect their power by monopolizing what is termed ethical training. A real truth can only be known by | Therefore, man can show no right, with reason, to use his power to teach or restrain the very source of his own greatness, which was the liberty to are noble, intelligent, sensible creaexist without being compelled to ac- tures, and most useful animal serknowledge a superior right in any vants which Divine goodness has giv-

Chinese Economy.

An example of careful, calculating economy is the construction of the cooking pots and boilers, the bottoms of which are as thin as possible, that the contents may boil all the sooner, for fuel is scarce and dear, and consists generally of nothing but the stalks and roots of the crops, which make a rapid blaze and disappear. The business of gathering fuel is committed to children, for one who can do nothing else can at least pick up straws and leaves and weeds. In clubs to shake off the leaves; the If mind-reading becomes a success, very straws get no time to show ing collector. Similarly professional their dress; nothing comes amiss to them; if it is not used in one place it is in another, where it appears a thing of beauty. Foreign residents who give their cast-off clothes away to the Chinese may be assured that Ballot reform is secondary to the the career of usefulness of these gar-

> There is no better preventive of nervous exhaustion than regular, unhurried, muscular exercise. If we could moderate our hurry, lessen our the best substitute is a day in bed. an hour's seclusion after a good lunch

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

Individuality of the Horse.

One thing curious and interesting ty," and spread it out on the arm of about the horse is its individuality. the chair by her father's side. He This is a characteristic common to all rubbed his eyes and drawled his way animals, undoubtedly to a greater or through the poem everlastingly. I less degree, but surpassingly so, we thought to myself if that was the way think, in the case of a horse. How Wordsworth read, they were fortuthis characteristic varies in horses is nate who never heard him. handle horses a great deal, who buy and sell frequently and study much their general characteristics, will tell you how wonderful horses are, how much they will sometimes teach even their drivers. Between a nervous, sensitive, intelligent horse and his considerate owner how large a union In the stable, on the road, if overtak- Wight. The common people have always en by an accident, the cool, sensible from his faithful horse. He trusts his master as his master trusts him. If the master is quiet the horse will be equally so, knowing that everything is safe. If the master blusters or becomes anxious or exhibits fear, the horse knows it at once and becomes restive likewise. Oh, that men only knew that horses know much more than they give them credit for, and that they would not use them more humanely than they do now. Horses are not brutes-they en to man. If a horse shows signs of stubbornness or contrariness, just get mad yourself, and you can rest assured you are fixed for the rest of the day as long as you want to keep it up. Horses, like men are generally set in their ways, and when a horse with only moderate sense gets into trouble with a man with only moderate sense the two generally have a "monkey and parrot time" from morning till night. Well-bred horses are seldom stubborn rnd unruly, and in this respect there is a striking analogy between horses and men. Horses docile, obedient and tractable in the hands of one man, are vicious and unruly in the hands of another. The reason is, the one knows how to manage them, the other does not. Bad dispositions are the result of bad handling. A few slaps and jerks, accompanied by a little sharp talk or a few fierce yells, get the most gentle horse clear beside himself and ready to worry and fret the remainder of the day. The more quiet and steady you keep your horses the better it will

This is the best time of the whole year to purify your blood, because now you are more susceptible benefit from medicine than at any other season Hood's Sarsaparılla is the best medicine to take, and it is the most economical-100 Doses One Dollar.

An Evening With De Quincey. The De Quinceys had lived some do it. To claim a right to impose up. is cheaper than the oil. Similarly time in the Lake District of England, on the defenceless people is injustice | dirt is cheaper than hot water, and | and naturally the conversation turnthat should be exposed by every sin- so, as a rule, the people do not wash. ed upon the famous poets, about cere reformer, it should be the test of The motto, "Cheaper than dirt," that whom the young ladies were quite as his sincerity. It is absurd for a lim- the soap dealer puts in his window, enthusiastic as myself. For a long ited number of people by reason of could not be made intelligible to the time we had been discussing Wordssuperior knowledge, to pretend that Chinese. To them the average for- worth, Coleridge, and all the rest, the people's rights are in danger of eigners are mere soap-wasters. when there glided noiselessly into the bribery at the polls. The common Scarcely any tool can be got ready- room, like a shadow, a little weirdpeople's rights have never been rec- made; it is so much cheaper to buy looking old man, saffron-colored, with ognized by the exclusive few. What the parts, and put them together for unkempt hair, dirty collar, long snuffpossible danger can there be to rights vourself, and as almost everybody brown coat, feet sliding around in (1) Bathe the feet in hot water that are not acknowledged, and practakes this view, ready-made tools are large India-rubber galoches, and ex- and drink a pint of hot lemonade. tically do not exist? First, acknowl- not to be got. Two rooms are dimly tended to me a wee, fleshless hand, Then sponge with salt water and reedge those rights, gentlemen, to those lighted with a single lamp deftly more like a bird-claw than "the pre- main in a warm room. (2) Bathe who are ignorant of the deception, placed in a hole in the dividing wall. hensile organ of man's supremacy." the face in very hot water every five that none but educated people are ca- Chinese, in fact, seem to be capable The daughters seated him tenderly in minutes for an hour. (3) Snuff up pable of, and the matter of bribery of doing almost anything by means of one corner of a large arm chair, where the nostrils hot salt water every three will be settled without so much tom- almost nothing. They will give you he sank almost out of sight. A few hours. (4) Inhale ammonia or menan iron foundry on a minute scale of formal inquiries were made about men thol. (5) Take four hours' active The very object of voting is to de- completeness in a back yard, and will and things in America, beyond which exercise in the open hour. A ten-

At the close of the dinner the ladies retired to the drawing-room, ac cording to the stereotyped British custom, leaving De Quincey and myself alone. We drank a glass of wine together and he discoursed a short ime in a languid manner, mostly about the unlovely character of the Scotch. Excusing himself, he took from his yest pocket a pill of opium as large as a small bickory nut and swallowed it. Soon his large head began to waver on his small neck, and he laid it down on his thin arms folded over the corner of the table. On his invitation, I was glad to escape to the young ladies above. It had been publicly announced some time before that De Quincey had quit opium eating, therefore I respected hospitality, and did not mention my experience till long after his death. In the drawing-room we returned to our beloved Lake Poets with renewed zest. Time passed rapidly, and I was about to take my leave when again the little weird old man glided noiselessly into the room. Again the daughters stowed him away may depend.' in one corner of the large arm-chair. He soon dozed, and we went on with our romantic talk. Soon. however, awakening, when one of the young ladies remarked that her father imitated the voice of Mr. Wordsworth so perfectly that intimate friends, of both in the next room, or out of sight, could not tell which was reading.

volume of Wordsworth's poetry, opened it at the "Ode on Immortali-Far, far removed in upper air, Away above the mountain crest, well known by any one who has ever As he closed the book a strange intelligently drawn a rein over a good light seemed to glow through his roadster. The individuality of horses eyes and illuminate his face. He bevaries as much as that of men. Every gan to talk with a voice that seemed one has a different mental as well as to flow out of the unknown-low, physical make-up. Some horses seem | mellifluous, ceaseless, filling one with to possess brains, to have some sense, awe. We listened almost breathless are quick to understand and obey the and soon found ourselves sitting on least sign, motion or word of their the floor at his feet, looking into his master. Some men drive and use transfigured face like entranced chilhorses for years and yet never real- dren. On, on, he discoursed, as I ize that they know anything, or that have never heard mortal discourse bethere is any more difference between fore or since. If one could imagine them than there is between so many all the wisdom, sentiment and learnbarrels or saw logs. Other men who ling to be crushed from DeQuincey's many volumes of printed books, and to be poured out, a continuous stream, he might form some conception of that long discourse-how long we know not. When the monologue ceased I looked at my watch, and found it was three o'clock in the morning .- From "A Winding Journey Around the World," by O. W.

Are you going to travel? If so you must be very eareful of your health, or your doctor's bills will ost you more than your traveling expenses. A bottle of Sulphur Bitters will protect you from all sickness incident to a change of climate.- Evening

Envelopes were first used in 1839. Anæsthesia was discovered in 1844. The first air-pump was made in

The first lucifer match was made The first iron steamship was built

The first balloon ascent was made

Gold was discovered in California

The first steel plate was discovered

Coaches were first used in England

The Franciscans arrived in England in 1224.

The first steamhoat plied the Hud-The entire Hebrew Bible was print-

The first horse railroad was built in 1826-'27.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a genera revival of trade at H. C. Pierce's drug store as his giving away to his customers of so many free trial ottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. His trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by | tle? Because, said old Gruffanglum; when getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every she is whistling she can't sing.

Success is obtained only by earnest effort; and this implies hard work of some kind; and, when a man is doing hard work, he certainly be for them, for yourself and all con- can not be considered as having found an easy place. It is those who do not make a success that are always on the lookout for an easy place; and after they find themselves in positions where a little earnest effort would considerably improve their condition. rather than make the effort they allow themselves to make an easy place for their individual comfort, and let their chances slip. Many a young man, in an effort to find an easy place, has allowed opportunities to pass by which, if he would have taken them up and added a few years of hard,

well-directed labor, would have placed him in a condition where, if he desired, he might take upon himself an FIVE WAYS TO STOP A COLD .-

According Alabama Enquirer, a type, folds papers and makes up mail, runs errands, saws wood, works in the garden, is blamed for a thousand other things he never thought of, works hard all day, is subject to spring fever, helps people into office who forget all about it afterward. and frequently gets cheated our of his earnings. He puffs up and does more to build up a town than anybody else, the miser and fogy are benefited, yet they do not take his paper, but they will borrow it and read it and cuss the fool of an editor. They had been talking for a long time. Arabella's chair was tired, and just for a change, she sat upon John's lap. There was a good deal of silence for a few minutes. "What are you thinking of, John, dear?" asked Arabella. "Just what you are, sweet," replied

"O, you horrid, horrid man," exclaimed the sweet one, springing to sat there one minute. And you won't catch me sitting there again, sir, you

Old Mrs. Bentley-Did you hear how Bentley-I heard that he took a relaps the withered divinity showed signs of this mornin'. Old Mrs. Bentley (with a sigh)-Well, I hope it will do the poor soul good, but I hain't much faith in them new-fangled medicines.

castor oil for constipation other disgusting drugs for piles, dyspepsia, and sick-headache, are being Hamburg Figs. 25 cents. Dose, one Fig. Mack property. Thirty years' extensive use has given April 10. Thereupon she took from a shelf a Drug Co., N. Y. For sale by all druggists.

My Home Beyond.

I have a home, 'tis bright and fair; Beyond old ocean's stormy breast,

And there my soul doth oft repair. In sweet communion with the blest, For in that peaceful home no care

Can enter. 'Tis the place of rest. Euroclydon with blast of death,

Can never touch my glorious Home But soft and sweet a heavenly breath Pervades it to the highest dome. Sweet scraph voices float beneath A canopy of shining gold,

It's brilliancy can ne'er be told. Offtimes I seem to dwell away From busy haunts of dreary earth; And calmly wait the future day,

Upon their brows a glittering wreath,

My soul shall have its glorious birth-Its birth of freedom from this clay, Which holds it as a heavy clod And longs to join the bright array

That stands before Eternal God.

The path is narrow, long and steep, And bounding floods obstruct the way: Caverns lie, so dark and deep, That he who falls is lost for aye; Then come, my friend, and take my hand, Together let us upward roam. The way is long; Time will not stand,

We must hasten to our far-off Home,

The Wedding.

Not a sigh was heard, not a funeral tone, As the man to his bridal he hurried; Not a woman discharged her farewell groan On the spot where the fellow was married We married him just about eight at night, Our faces paler turning,

By the struggling moonbeam's misty light,

And the gas lamps' steady burning. No useless watch chain adorned his vest, Nor over-dressed we found him, But he looked like a gentleman wearing his best, With a few of his friends around him Few and short were the things he said

But we silently gazed on the man that was wed, And bitterly thought of the morrow. We thought as we quietly stood about With spite and anger dying, How the meanest stranger cut us out, With only half our trying.

And we spoke not a word of sorrow,

Lightly we'll talk of the fellow that's gone, And oft of the past upbraid him, But little he'll care if we let him live on In the house where his wife conveyed him But our heavy task at length was done,

When the clock struck the hour for retiring, And we heard the spiteful squib and pun The girls were sullenly firing. Slowly and sadly we turned to go; We struggled and we were human,

We shed not a tear and we spoke not our woe, But we left him alone with his woman A patch on a boy's trousers is some thing new under the son. Be kind to the little one. You can't develop children as you do corns-with a

Some people make a dollar's worth of trouble in accomplishing five cents' worth The man who can say, give me the baby, dear, and I will try to put it to sleep, is greater than he who can mash a "If any one calls for me," wrote the escaped convict to the warder of the jail, "tell him I am out and you don't know when I'll be back." An ounce of prevention is better nor a pound of cure, said Mrs. Brattle, as she took a cup of ginger tea before eating sliced cucumbers. At what age were you married, she asked inquisitively. But the other lady was equal to the emergency, and quietly responded. At the parsonage. Why, asked pretty Miss Downbirds, do men pay so much to hear a woman whis-An exchange says that the reason there are so many mutton heads in existence is to be found is the fact that such a number of children are "perfect little lambs." Lawyer (to witness): "Did you say that an incompetent man could keep a hotel just as good as anybody?" Witness-"No. I said that an inn-experienced man vesterday What sort of a menu did they give you? I really can't tell you, for I didn't take any. It's a thing I seldom "What makes the girl wink so funny?" inquired DeSmythe of Browne. "Is she

So you were at Mrs. Marble's dinner intoxicated?" "Oh, no; she is not intoxicated," responded Browne. "It's only her shoes that are tight." Mrs. Muggins (reading)-Every man gets the wife beaven intended for him. Muggins (musingly)-lt must be true, then, that men are punished in this Ethel-Are you going to the seashore summer? Laura-That depends. Papa says I may go if he fails, but if he have to stay at home and economize. The Congregationalist reports the small boy as saying: I don't like my Sunday school teacher. Why not? inquired the head of the household. Because he Have you anything to say why sentence of death should be passed upon you? Yes, your honor. What is it. I have always been and still am, strenaously opposed to Ticket agent (at railroad station)-I wish some way could be invented to keep men away from the ladies' window. Bystander-Easy enough, put the sign 'For Ladies Only,' on the door "Minnie has been in to see me to-day," said little five-year-old," and she behaved like a lady." "And I hope you did, too," said her mother. "Yes, indeed, I did. turned somersets for her on the bed."

Mamma-Why are you sticking a pin into your German book, Elsie? Elsiecountry editor is one who reads news- Why, the dinner bell has rung, mamma, papers, writes on any subject, sticks | and I want to remember where I left off hunting for the verb in that sentence.

Pshaw, said a Sixteenth street lady to her husband, who had been criticising her attire, what does a man know about woman's clothing, any way? He knows the prices, my dear, he replied, gently, and Pawnbroker-This is a very fine alarm clock, sir; and I am sorry to say I can not advance you a tenth of its value.

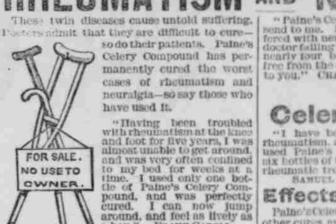

Citizen-Never mind. It will be of no further use to me. There are twins in Landlady-That new boarder needn't try to make me believe he is a bachelor. He's either married or a widower. How can you tell? Landiday-He always turns his back to me when he opens his pocket-

Son-Papa, how do they catch lunatics? Cynical father-With large straw hats and feathers and white dresses, jewelry, and neat gloves, my boy. Mamma (musingly)-Yes, I remember that's how I dressed before we were married.

Mothers!

There are upon the skin of every human being, child and adult nlike, 2,300,000 pores. Through her feet. "If I have known you were these pores in the form of insensable perspiration is thinking of kissing I wouldn't have expelled more than one-quarter of the nourishment taken into the system. The importance of keeping open these perspiration valves upon a child's body is second only to that of properly digesting the food eaten. It was to open the pores of the skin and to assimilate the food that Dr. Pitcher formulated Castoria. Loose bowels, constipation, fevers and Deacon Brown is getting on? Old Mr. eruptions which are so constant among infants and children, and which kill one-third of all children before they are five years old, arise principally from these two causes. It is from the wonderful results attendant upon the use of Castoria in regulating the stomach and bowels and keeping open the pores of the skin that Castoria acquired its world-wide reputation. With plenty of water for Disgusting Daugs .- Blue-mass for torpid liver, the body, pure air for the lungs and Castoria to assimilate the food, there need be no unaccounted for sickness among children. Castoria is a vegetable Rose surely banished from use by the sweet, fruit-like prescription without morphine or other parcotic it a history never attained by another medicine.

.00. Six for $5.00. Druggists

.dammoth testimonial paper free.

to you." CHAS H. LEWIS, Central Village, Ct. Paine's Celery Compound ax bottles of this medicine. I am now cured of

Effects Lasting Cures. ly vegetable; a child can take it. What's the tee of suffering longer with rheumatism or WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Props., Burlington Vt. | neuralgia |

TIAMOND DYES Give Faster and Brighter | RABIES Living upon Lacinted Food are Hooliky Colors than any other Dyes, | RABIES Living upon Lacinted Food are Hooliky

New Car Brown's Best Flour

Just received and selling low. Nice Sugar-Cured Smoked Hams and Shoulders, from 10c. per lb. Few bbls. Baldwin and Russet Apples, sound and all right, $1.50 to $2.50 per bbl. Lot machine made Tubs for butter and sugar, all sizes. Full line of Dry Goods, Drugs & Medicines, Boots & Shoes, etc. We pay highest market price for fresh Eggs.

BARRON & HAMBLET. 3-1, '89.

WHEELER & LOCKE.

SALT! SALT! SALT

Have just received a large invoice of 200-lb. Sacks Feed Salt, 56-lb. Sacks Butter Salt, 14-lb. Sacks Butter Salt, 20-lb. Boxes Table Salt, 10-lb. Bags Table Salt, and 5-lb. Bags Table Salt.

Especially would we urge our patrons to try a sack of the

Warsaw "HIGH GRADE"

Dairy Salt. Wherever used it has proved itself a very superior article. Test it! Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

For dairymen's use we also have the three leading kinds of BUTTER COLOR!

Wells, Richardson & Co's., Thatcher's, and Dutcher's Golden Liquid.

Although for a few days short of 50-lb.

BUTTER TUBS. We are again prepared to supply our customers with all sizes.

IRASBURGH, VT.

IN ONE SEASON. COOLEY CREAMER PROCESS

KANSAS STATE FAIR, MINN. STATE FAIR, IOWA STATE FAIR, VIRCINIA DIST. FAIR, MAINE STATE FAIR, BAY STATE FAIR, STATE FAIR, DELA. STATE FAIR, VA. A. & M. EXPOSITION. JOS. B. ANDERSON, JR. ENGINES, BOILERS, CHUING, BUTTER WORKERS, AND EVERYTHING USED IN CLEAR IT TO BAIRIES. BEND FOR CERCUITARE GIVING FULL, PARTICULA VT. FARM MACHINE CO., Bellows

Irasburgh, April 1, 1889.

checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine. "I have used Aver's Cherry Pectoral This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a ball of the Pectoral cured me."-A. J. Eidson, M. D., Middleton,

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard,

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this prearation."-J. B. Chandler, Junction, Va.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. SEED POTATOES.

The "Charles Downing," grown in the cold north-cast by George W. P. Jerrard, Caribon, Mc. The extra early "Minister." Price, per bushel, 85; § bu., $4; pk., $2,50; ib., 50c. "New Queen," bid., $5; bu., $2,50; pk., $5c.; (with an qual chance it will outyield any other polato.) Early "Paritan," bid., $8; bu., $4; pk., $1,25. Genuine "Early Rose," bbl., $3, of 180 lbs net; add 5de per bid. prepand freight to B-ston; two kinds in a bbl. with-out extra charge. Join the club which will close April 10. Address, C. B. DREW, Barton Landing, Vt.

Wm. L. Locke's Estate. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Const, that said published at Barron, previous to said time ap ed for hearing, that they may appear at said and place, and show cause, if any they may have why said account should not be allowed, and suc-By the Court-Attest, C. H. JONES, Register

WHEELER & LOCKE.

PUBLIC GUARANTY BANK NEWPORT, N. H. 41 Guarantees 5 per cent. Compoun Guaranty Fund, $25.000; Deposits, $110,000. Began business Nov. 1, 1987. GEO. H. BARTLETT, Pres., P. A. JOHNSON, Treas., (formerly clerk in Barton National Bank.)

DEPOSITS SOLICITED.

Refers to H. K. DEWEY, Cashier Burton Natio Refers to H. K. DEW 5.1, Cambridge for depos Bank, Barton, Vt., with whom funds for depos 18-60

Dry and Fancy Goods.

Strictly One Price. Write to us, stating the articles you wish to buy, and we will send you samples by mail, Free, with width of goods and price per yard marked on each. Printed Circular of information sent with Samples EASTMAN BROS. & BANCROFT and is all rented at good rates. Was recently pr in thorough repair. Having removed from town am willing to dispose of the property at low rates and on most favorable terms. Apply to BENJ, MOSSMAN, Barton.

Good House for Sale

PORTLAND, ME.

B8-tf LEVI JACOBS, No. Stratford, N. H.

Core Parwlysis, Henry Discuss, Ha-Adamy and Bladder Transler, Ch. Head, Spots Before Eyes, Pain Avor Palpiention of the Henry believe

PLECTINE, Poly in Regime of a Back or Hip, Soundy and Pite 85.00, Send to DH. F. S. HUYCHING Broadward Faths, Va., for expectages no

Office of Charles A. Snyd Cleveland Bay and Trotting Read He

KENDALL'S SPAVIN O

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGES

for Strongth, lirightness, Aver for Evalues of Color, or to They do not cruck or many to LAT PHERCE, Barron, and D. M. C.

AND

Norris Sargent, Barton

FORSALI

COLDS and CHRONIC COUC The great remedy for Communities Wasting in Children, Sold by all Dec

GREAT EASTERN TEA